FORMOSA. THE island of Formosa is so out of the way a place that news from its porte reaches Hongkong only at intervals Were it not for the temporary celebrity it acquired from the Consular and Naval action necessitated to bring its officials to their senses, many in Uhina, and far more at home, would have almost forgotten aught else than that it was usually included in the Maps of China familiar to schoolboy eyes. But it has played an important part, thanks to the obstructive stupidity of the Mandarins in authority, in causing the reaction which is now setting in after the burst up of the magnificent but imaginative picture painted by Mr Burlingame to the confiding politicians of his own country and of Europe. Any information throwing light upon the subsequent proceedings of the native officials in connection with the Formosa outrage must therefore of some interest.

It will be recollected that the late Mr Gibson was forced into the course he adopted by the insolent conduct of a faotai named Liang, whose contempt for the "Barbarian" was not merely shewn by his determination not to act up to Treaty agreement, but actually extended to striking Mr Gibson over the knuckles with his fan and turning his back in the most inspertment and insulting menner upon the Senior Naval Officer acting in concert with the Consul. So gross in fact was his conduct that the straight 7. God Save the Od forward sailor was for arresting Mi Liang and carrying him to Foochow to be handed over to his superiors for safe conduct to Peking. This, however, was not done, owing to the earnest interession of Mr Gibson; but in the events which followed, one of the stipulations insisted upon before the withdrawal of our forces was the immediate supercession of the justly obnoxious Tuotai-an arrangement which was agreed, to We now learn thatou the 18th October, 1862 (!) the Chinese gunboat Hua-ju-pao atrived A LARGE shake of 5 fe was killed on the Ko at Ang-ping with Li Chao Tang of some gentlemen on board to relieve Liang of his post in the Scoter. It was Punic faith this with a vengeance | When all excitement has calmed down, when the apology, which, owing to Foreign office ignorance, indifference, and disloyalty to British interests combined was directed to be made had been circulated throughout the length and breadth of the land, when the stipulation can be ignored and other reasons can be assigned for Liang's dismissal, the Chinese anxions to keep faith (!), longing for a better understand ing between foreigners and themselves (!!) desirous of entering into the comity nations (!!!), condescend to keep then promise in their usual manner-so that it amounts to not keeping it at all! And the cream of the joke lies in this that had Liang but contrived to keep on friendly terms with the literations might still have been in power But the man's temper and conduct to his own countrymen has accelerated his downfall -if indeed it is not to turn out promotion to a more distant post. They were badly disposed towards him undoubted! and from Chinese sources we hear the were intensely annoyed at the bad way in which he managed the quarrel with foreigners, inasmuch as he afforded us in the first instance grounds for resorting to force—a fact which most tolerable unprejudiced Chinese admit and 55 condly allowed us to get so much the best of it. A HORRIBLE MURDER IN FRANCE Our readers have seen in Reuter's late telegrams, published on Saturday, mention of the arrest, at Havre of a man named Kinck, who was identified as having been concerned in the murder of a family of six persons in a field near Paris. We do not often give prominence to the tales of crimes of this sort. but the circumstances of this one seem to be so atrocious, as narrated by the Paris correspondent of the London Herald, that we give his statement hearly in full. His letter is dated Paris, Sept. 21 crime unparalleled in magnitude and atrocity is causing great sensation in Paris. Yesterday morning a farm labourer living at Pantin, a suburbau village just outside the fortifications to the north-east of Paris, was crossing a field on his way to his work; when his attention was caught by large part of which appeared to have been to be seven cents a pound. He immediately ran off to the Commissary of Police, and soon returned to the spot with assistance, and spades having been procured a discovery was made which struck horror into the hearts of all who beheld it. Six corpses successively came to light, as shovelful after shoveful of earth was removed, evidently those of mother and her five children; all of them were literally out to pieces, and one or two of the bodies backed and hewed in a manner too sickening to describe. The first body discovered was that of a little girl of seven, fearfully hacked about the neck; th second that of a boy of 14; the third that of a little girl, a more baby her abdomen had been laid open, and the intestines fell out as the body was taken up; but her face. like that of the other victims, had been gashed over, possibly with a view to prevent identification; the fourth was the body of the mother, a woman about 35and then two lads of about 12 and 16. The former had b. en butchered in a hideous way this head was cut to pieces, and one of his eyes had been forced from the orbit. The bodies had been laid at the feet of each other, and were covered by about three feet of earth, and the murderer or murderers had tried to give the ground the appearance of ploughed land, forming it into furrows. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacions remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and Chine as this fine and invigorating medicine. If is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared botthis wonderful Ointment, as it pare after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcors, and also the most invoterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian; as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat-
